The Brenze Dell received first consideration, both because of its wide popularity and its unusual adaptability for the screen. The story is dramatic and the heart appeal irresistible. Carutenay Foote and Doris May head a clever cast of players.

A News Weekly and a comdy entitled Movie Struck will also be shown. Mr. Knox Resumes Teaching

Benjamin M. Knox, who came to Norwich late last spring and conducted a twelve weeks' course in singing, an-nounces that he has resumed teaching, and will be at Room 19, 331 Main street (Miss Elizabeth Lane's Studio) on Friday of each week.

The fact that a goodly number of Mr. Knox's pupils are at the present time helding professional choir positions in va-rious churches of Hartford and vicinity, demonstrates that the method of singing taught by him brings practical and substantial results. Mr. Knox will be particularly glad to see any students of singing who have become discouraged because they have not progressed asthey think they ought to, for if they do their part, he knews he can help them attain the prefetency
